LESTER BROOKS, district governor of Lions International, who was a special guest at Tuesday evening's ladies' night affair of the local Lions Club, was yarning about the water situation.

"I met a farmer out this way the other afternoon hauling water for his place," declared Brooks. "Where are you hauling the water from?" I inquired. "From the river," the farmer replied. "How far is it to the river?" "Five miles."

"Why don't you drill a well?" "Water's closer at the river!"

THE DISTRICT GOVERNOR also gave a little different version of an old yarn that was still good.

The professional bar fly, Brooks related, went into the bar and bet the bartender that he could blind-fold himself and, by tasting, tell the bartender the correct name of any drink he could mix.

The bartender called the bet, and began mixing drinks and setting them out for the bar-fly to sample.

After the fellow had correctly identified six or eight samples, the bartender poured some water before the guy. He sipped it several times, scratched his head, then declared:

"Well, I give up. I don't know what it is. But it won't sell!"

JO HARGROVE RIDDLE probably will be having her cash washed and greased every time she needs some spending money.

Last week, when she took the Kenneth Riddle car to Hastings Service Station for a cleaning and lubricating job, she didn't realize that it was like going to the bank to cash a check.

As the station attendants began brushing out the car they located some change—then some more. They got a coffee can to put the coins in, and when Jo went after her car it was difficult to convince her that all the change had been picked up under the seats and on the floor-boards of the car.

She took the coffee can home and counted more than $12 in the collection!

Those slanting seats on the new cars are not only comfortable, but they are mighty convenient for dumping change from the riders' pockets, Jo concludes.

"I'm going to buy me a new dress the celebrate," she declared.

MR. AND MRS. Roy Mauldin, who recently moved from Hamlin to make their home in Alaska, in writing for their Herald to be changed to the new address, write: "We are interested in the Home Town Paper, and don't want to miss any news."

The letter, from Mountain View, Alaska, continues: "The weather has been so nice here in Alaska, and there has been more rain than we have seen in Texas for years. It is snowing in the mountains now and will be down to Anchorage any day. So you can see it is cooler and nice here. We are enjoying the change and are feeling fine."

FOUR ANSON GOLFERS were playing a round of golf one afternoon and were proceeding along a hole which paralleled a highway when a funeral procession passed.

One of the foursome removed his hat, bowed his head and stood at attention reverently until the complete procession had passed. After proceeding with his game again, one of his friends asked: "Joe, you must have been well acquainted with the deceased in that funeral, to show such respect."

"Yes," he replied "I was. It she had lived until next Friday, we would have been married 30 years."

ANOTHER bad thing about the terrible car wrecks of this modern day is that a lot of repairs cannot be made on the victims. A so-called poet says:

Joe didn't listen look or stop,
So they dragged his flivver to a shop.
It only took a week or two
To make his car as good as new;
But, though they hunted high and low,
They found no extra part for Joe!

Scores More Expected to Be Here for HHS Homecoming

New Addresses Found, and Many Plan to Attend

Plans are progressing for entertaining an increased number of Hamlin High School ex-students this year at the second annual homecoming. The homecoming will be staged on Friday and Saturday, October 12 and 13, according to Cliff Reynolds Jr., president of the HHS Ex-Students Association.

The local exes should get the word through the newspaper, telephone and word of mouth. The Herald will carry a weekly article on the plans as they are completed.

Area former students are asked to pre-register, using the coupon printed in The Herald.

Committee chairmen in charge of various homecoming events, as appointed by Reynolds, are: Mrs. George Poe, program; Mrs. Bill Shira and Mrs. D. C. Lock, registration; Mrs. Austin Poe, nominating committee; Mrs. Kenneth Riddle, after-game coffee; and Joe Ford, barbecue.

After the game coffee will be served at the high school cafeteria; Saturday—Registration begins at 8:00 a. m. at the high school building; business and class meetings in the auditorium at 9:30 a. m. At 1:00 p. m. a barbecue will be served at the City Park.

More than 100 Lions, ladies and guests were present last Tuesday evening for the twenty-sixth anniversary ladies' night affair of the Hamlin Lions Club, held at the Primary School cafeteria.

Principal speaker was District Governor Lester Brooks of Lions International, of Iowa Park. Also participating in the gathering was International Joe Childers of Abilene and International Counselor Horace Connolly, also of Abilene.

Following the serving of a cafeteria style fried chicken dinner, prepared by cooks of the school cafeteria, the invocation was offered by Austin Siburt, minister of the Church of Christ. Group singing was led by Willard Jones, accompanied by Mrs. J. W. McCrary.

After a welcome by President Edgar Duncan, guests were introduced by Zone Chair Herman McBride. Guests were present from Abilene, Anson, Roby, Rotan and Aspermont.

Four song numbers were rendered by Joyce and Loyce Anderson of Anson, accompanied by Lillie Ann Ray.

Service awards were presented to monarch Lions by Joe Childers. Awards went to Harold Bonner and Arlie Cassle for 25 years of service; Haskell Carter, 20 years; A. Spencer, 15 years; Stanley Carmichael and Edgar Duncan, 10 years.

HANDICAPPED PERSON OF THE YEAR—Lawrence R. Melton (right) chairman of the Texas Committee for Employment of the Physically Handicapped, as he presented the committee's award to Earl Brown Jr. of Abilene as the Handicapped Person of the Year in Austin. Brown received the award because he did more than find a job for himself when a retinal hemorrhage left him practically blind. He has built a thriving telephone answering service called TASCO and has six other handicapped persons working for him.

Emergency Roughage Program Is Out of Funds

Volume of approved applications for assistance under the Texas emergency roughage program has exceeded the estimates of demand made when this program was negotiated, so it is necessary to re-appraise the actual cash requirement, advises the Anson office of the Farmers Home Administration.

The agreement between Secretary Ezra Taft Benson and Governor Allan Shivers provides for an allocation of $1,000,000 of federal funds for the roughage program. Funds available to the U. S. Department of Agriculture to finance roughage programs must be allocated among all disaster designated states where such a program is needed.

Walter T. McKay, Texas state director of Farmers Home Administration, has been instructed by K. L. Scott, director of credit services of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, to immediately instruct all FHA county offices in the designated areas to withhold further approvals of roughage purchase certificates.

The county offices are authorized to continue to accept and hold on file applications for assistance under this roughage program, but are instructed to take no action on these applications and to make daily reports on the tonnage requirements covered by such applications to McKay's office.

McKay has been asked to solicit the assistance of the Texas USDA drought committee and the office of the governor in making a careful reappraisal of the demand for assistance under this emergency roughage program including financial requirements.

Scott said that, in keeping with the policies and the desires of Secretary Benson, the department will continue to work closely with Governor Shivers and leaders in the state and give all assistance possible within the authority and funds available to the department in providing assistance to drought stricken farmers and ranchers in Texas.

Bids Called for On Oil Lease of Property at Lake

No immediate plans are being made to hire a replacement for John L. Lea, city coordinator and engineer, who resigned several days ago to accept a position with the Army Engineering Corps at Albuquerque, New Mexico. It was revealed at the regular monthly business meeting of the Hamlin City Council, held Monday night of last week.

This was the first official meeting of the City Council since the resignation of Lea had been presented, effective September 15.

Lea had previously been connected with the Army Engineering Corps at the Roswell Air Force Base before coming to Hamlin eight months ago.

A report of the work done under Lea's supervision was presented to the council. The present city hall was rearranged and city jail cells added under Lea's direction. He also supervised considerable curb and gutter work over the city.

Routine matters were conducted at the business session, including the approval for payment of monthly bills.

The council group voted authorized the advertising for bids on oil, gas and mineral leases on 762 acres of land located at the Hamlin South Lake, six miles south-east of town. A five-year lease is being sought. Bids are to be presented in writing prior to the October meeting of the council on October 16.

Anson Man to Speak At Calvary Revival

Jones County Teachers Meet at Anson Monday in First Session of New Year

"A Challenge to Teachers" will be the subject when Dr. John McFarland, superintendent of schools at Vernon, addresses the Jones County unit of the State Teachers Association in its initial meeting of the year, to be held in the high school auditorium at Anson Monday evening, October 1.

An informal sing-song led by W. E. Mayes of Stamford will precede the address of Dr. McFarland. The meeting will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

The Jones County unit will have two other meetings during the year. In January the host school will be Leuders. At this time the meeting will be held in sectional units, so that teachers may discuss problems that pertain to their individual grades or subjects.

The Stamford teachers will be hosts for the annual spring banquet some time in April.

Officers for the Jones County unit this year are: Mrs. Mary Gay of Stamford, president; W. E. Pistole of Noodle, first vice president; Mrs. Ruth Breed of Anson, second vice president; Rozella Veazey of Stamford, secretary; and Mrs. Maurice Vinson of Leuders, treasurer. In addition to the above, who are members of the executive committee, other members are G. T. Black of Hamlin, Ben Green of Hawley, James Cornell of Avoca and W. Troy Denham of Leuders.

Teachers of all the schools of the county make up the membership of the Jones County unit. One of the projects being sponsored by the Jones County Teachers Association at this time is to recruit the public with proposed amendment No. 4, which the association hopes will receive favorable consideration of the voters at the November 6 election.

DOES YOUR YOUNGSTER SPEND TOO MUCH?

Ever wonder if your youngster spends more than other children his own age? Today, report the editors of Changing Times, the Kiplinger magazine, children handle more money and take spending money more for granted than ever before.

To see how your youngster compares with the average, here are figures showing what children spend each week and where the money comes from:

Age	Earned	From Parents	Total
8 to 9 years.....	$.80	$.40	$ 1.20
10 to 12 years.....	.70	.60	1.30
13 to 15 years.....	1.60	1.40	3.00
16 to 18 years.....	4.20	3.20	7.40

In the youngest age group, candy, ice cream and sodas account for the largest expenditure. In the 10-to-12 age group, movies become a standard expense. Spending money on hobbies and records becomes a regular item for the boy between 13 and 15, while his female counterpart starts buying cosmetics, minor items of clothing and costume jewelry. Dating is a heavy expense for boys in their late teens (16 to 18), while outlays for beauty and adornment climb in the girls' budgets.

According to the editors, 81 per cent of all youngsters receive formal allowances. Another 16 per cent get informal ones—varying sums at irregular intervals with which to cover their expenses. Only three per cent get no allowance of any kind. Getting a regular sum and making it last is the only practical way, say money-management experts, to teach children to make choices and assume responsibility in financial matters.

About seven out of ten children earn some of their money. Young ones get it chiefly from paid household chores. Older ones baby sit, usher in movie theaters, clerk in five-and-tens on Saturdays. Encouraging youngsters to earn some of their money is good training, but they should do some household tasks without pay.

What Is a Father?

A father is a thing that is forced to endure childbirth without an anesthetic. A father is a thing that growls when he feels good and laughs loud when scared half to death.

A father never feels worthy of the worship in a child's eyes. He's never quite the hero his daughter thinks; never quite the man his son believes him to be—and this worries him sometimes. So he works too hard to try and smooth the rough places in the road for those of his own who will follow him.

A father is a thing that gets very angry when the school grade aren't as good as he thinks they should be. So he scolds his son—though he knows it's the teacher's fault.

Fathers are what give daughters away to other men who aren't nearly good enough—so they can have grandchildren who are smarter than anybody's. Fathers make bets with insurance companies about who'll live the longest. One day they lose—and the bet's paid off to the part of them they leave behind.

I don't know where father goes when he dies. But I've an idea that after a good rest, wherever it is, he won't just sit on a cloud and wait for the girl he's loved and the children she bore; he'll be busy there, too—repairing the stairs, oiling the gates, improving the streets—smoothing the way.

You Rule the Economy

"It isn't the businessman or the government or any other identifiable group which rules our economy," writes Sylvia Porter, the business and financial analyst. "It is 'you,' the consumer, who rules its ups and downs." She adds: "And if that still sounds elementary to you, I'll sign off with the reminder that it has taken a couple of centuries of basic economic research to produce the proof."

This is why more and more studies are being made of consumer hopes, plans and psychology in general. For it is the amount of money you spend, and how you spend it, that determines the economic climate in this vast country.

Ability to Hang On

When Rudyard Kipling was a boy his father took him on a sailing expedition. In the afternoon the father went into his cabin to take a nap. Soon the captain came in and awakened him with the exclamation, "That boy of yours has climbed out on the yard arm, and if he should let go he will fall into the water and be drowned."

The elder Kipling replied, "But that boy of mine will not let go," and promptly went back to sleep.

Kipling's ability to stick and to "hang on" carried him on to many a victory.

More people read the editorial columns regularly than any other department of the newspaper—even including the comics.

That is one of the facts brought out in a reader survey made by The Daily News of Tucson, Arizona. Eighty per cent of men readers said they were editorial page followers, along with 72 per cent of the women. That means the editorial page is a "must" with more than three-quarters of the total readership.

This is an age of great controversy, great problems, great questions. The opinion of the local editor is sought and respected by tens of millions of Americans.

The Old Timer remembers when the only fringe benefits were those a man got from watching the tassel dancer at the county fair.—Changing Times.

Editorial of the Week

PENALIZED FOR DOING GOOD JOB

Some folks say that 90 per cent support prices are to blame for our surpluses. They are overlooking a much more important reason—the revolution in our ability to produce.

It started in the thirties and reached full stride during and after the war. We are growing huge crops of cotton, wheat, corn, rice and peanuts, and have many more cattle and hogs because farm people have learned to produce much more per dollar investment in land, labor and equipment. The upsurge in production is so great that it can't be choked off at any reasonable price level. You might do it with extremely low prices continued long enough to break thousands of good farmers. But that would be a senseless, silly way to solve the problem of agricultural surpluses.

The most significant contribution that 90 per cent supports have made to our heavy production is that they have given farmers the confidence and the dollars needed to follow new, improved practices. Supports at 90 per cent of parity didn't have anything to do with the comparatively high farm prices from 1942 to 1952. They would have been high anyway. But they did permit farmers to buy the chemicals, the equipment and other items of production required to farm efficiently.

A farmer does his best to produce all he can, regardless of price. In fact, if he is being squeezed between low prices and high costs, he has to do his best to stay in business. Now that timber is the only farm crop in short supply, there is little opportunity for farmers to help themselves, pricewise, by shifting from one crop to another.

Some way must be found to reward rather than penalize farmers for doing a good job.—The Farm Journal.

TEXANS IN WASHINGTON

By Tex Easley, AP Washington Correspondent

Washington.—Eleven years ago last April a sleek new battle cruiser, the U. S. S. Galveston, slid down the ways of a ship-building yards in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Clark Thompson, wife of the Galveston district congressman and daughter of the late William Moody, Galveston financier, christened the ship. Her husband then was a Marine Corps colonel.

The colorful launching ceremony is the only noteworthy thing that so far has happened to the vessel. Once afloat, workmen scurried back aboard to finish outfitting her so she could sail out and join in fighting the Japanese. The war ended when she was 90 per cent complete, so work was stopped and she went into the mothball fleet.

But, things are looking up. Admirals testifying recently before congressional committees for money told of an active future they have in store for the USS Galveston. She is to undergo a drastic revamping, to make her useful for modern warfare. Although she had been built with the latest of World War II features, she was becoming obsolete. She is to be converted to a guided missile carrier.

House Speaker Sam Rayburn of Bonham recently participated in ceremonies unveiling a portrait of Representative Jere Cooper of Tennessee in the House ways and means committee room. The Tennesseean is committee chairman. The painting was done by Boris Gordon, prominent Houston artist.

The honor of having one's portrait displayed around the capitol and in the congressional committee rooms is a high one. Not all chairmen rate it, but only those who have been held in high esteem by their colleagues. Then, there are pictures or sculptured likenesses of others, such as former speakers and vice presidents. Texas is amply represented

Strike Against Meat Packers Fails to Affect Market Prices at Fort Worth

Trade was fairly active, and most classes of cattle and calves sold fully steady at Fort Worth Monday, declares Ted Gouldy, special market reporter for The Herald, in his weekly release from Cattle Town. At Fort Worth a major portion of the cattle supply was again aged cows and bulls. Fed steers topped at $24.

The strike against Swift & Company packing plants across the country affected 39 of that firm's plants. However, since most of their employees at Fort Worth and other Texas points were members of an independent union and not affected by the strike, operations were normal.

All other packers were operating normally, and a check of the Fort Worth area Monday morning revealed practically all plants operating near capacity.

In the critical New York area the U. S. Department of Agriculture reported in the wholesale meat trade that "the strike situation was causing little excitement as wholesalers are functioning on a normal basis. Supplies little changed from a week ago." The USDA report on wholesale meat trade out of Chicago said in part: "Beef offerings not quite as plentiful as most recently."

Comparative prices at Fort Worth: Good and choice steers and yearlings, $17 to $24; common and medium, $10 to $16.50; fat cows, $8.50 to $11; canners and cutters, $5.50 to $8.50; bulls, $8 to $12.50; slaughter calves, $8 to $17.50; baby beef to $18 and above; stocker calves, $19 down; stocker yearlings, $17.50 down.

Butcher hogs opened 50 to 75 cents up at Fort Worth and topped at $17.25 to $17.50, and sows were 50 cents higher at $14 to $15.50. While about normal supplies of a man who was to succeed him from Texas—Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson. Sheppard died in 1941.

A bust of Garner also is found in a niche in the Senate wing, among others who have served as vice president, and the accompanying role as president of the Senate.

In Statuary Hall in the capitol, near the great rotunda, each state may place statues of two heroes of its own choosing. There are the life-like full length likenesses of Sam Houston and Stephen F. Austin mounted on huge blocks of pink granite.

Boy Scouts to Assist Vote Bid for Teacher

Members of Troop 43 of the Boy Scouts of America in Hamlin have volunteered to help publicize the election of November 4 at which emphasis will be placed on support of the teacher retirement amendment to the state constitution.

They will place stickers urging support of the amendment on cars parked at the Pied Piper stadium Friday night, according to C. R. Cook, superintendent of Hamlin Schools.

Two Boys and Girl Made Pipers of Weel

Herbert Lakey, Don Adair and Mary Ann Willbanks were named Pipers of the week from the student body of Hamlin High School. The Pipers of the week are selected by members of the Pied Piper football team after the game each Friday night.

17 Jones County Young People Join Service in August

An estimated 17 young people from Jones County entered the armed forces during the month of August, while probably about the same number were discharged.

A total of 3,443 Texans entered the armed services in August, and 3,523 were separated from active service during the same time.

This was revealed Friday in a report made by state selective service headquarters at Austin to national selective service headquarters in Washington.

Of the 3,443 individuals entering the uniformed services from Texas in August only 600 were drafted, the remainder entering by enlistment or other voluntary means.

"Actually, many of the inducted men were volunteers," Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state selective service director, said.

He explained that a provision of the selective service regulations allows men from the age of 17 to 26 to volunteer for induction through draft boards. Seventeen-year-olds must have written consent from their parents or guardians.

State selective service sent 963 men to armed forces examining stations during August. A total of 636 were found acceptable, the remaining 329 being rejected, a rejection rate of 34 per cent.

Three physicians were examined for military service during August under provisions of the doctors' draft law. All were found acceptable. There were no inductions of medical personnel.

The opening ceremony of Monday night's meeting was a color guard composed of John Richey, patrol leader; Bob Martin Jr., assistant Scoutmaster; Bob Johnson and Bill Richey, patrol leaders; and Jimmy Shivers, drummer.

C. F. Cook, superintendent of schools, was presented to the group as guest speaker. Cook told the boys about the importance of keeping good school teachers and how the forthcoming passage of the teacher retirement amendment would help keep and get teachers for our public schools.

The Boy Scouts have volunteered to help in this concentrated effort by placing stickers on cars Friday evening at the football game here.

Scouts will place the stickers on each car bumper Friday night or they will secure permission from each car owner before placing them on windshields, Cook said.

Next, the game period was presided over by John Richey and Bob Martin.

This was followed by patrol meetings, during which officers were elected. These will be named next week.

All the Scouts then practiced their Indian ceremonies, preceding the board of review, after which the meeting closed.

Responsibility for Safety of Children Rests Largely on Crown-Up Motorists

"I'd like to give every parent and every automobile driver a chance to sit behind the steering wheel of a school bus for just one day. Believe me, they'd learn plenty about child pedestrian safety."

The observation was made this week by E. C. McFadden, president of the Texas Safety Association. He was discussing the child safety program which is being conducted in Texas by the Texas Safety Association, the Department of Public Safety in cooperation with the National Safety Council.

McFadden is pretty sure that driving a school bus would convince the adults of one thing—that the responsibility for the safety of children in traffic rests largely on the shoulders of the grown-ups.

"Sure, we have problem kids on the bus," he said. "But it's my opinion that the problem of most problem children is their parents."

He believes that the youngsters who get out of control on the school bus, or who disregard safety rules when getting on or off the bus, haven't been taught at home to respect others or to respect law and order.

So much for the adults who are an indirect cause of many child pedestrian accidents. He also had plenty to say about the adults who are a direct factor—the automobile drivers.

"Some of them are in such a hurry to get where they're going that they can't spare the time to stop while the school bus is loading or unloading," he said. "There are others who stop, but who don't make sure that all the children are safely across the street before they start up again. Drivers like these risk the lives of children just to save a few seconds time."

For these drivers and for those who don't slow down near schools and playgrounds or who don't keep a constant eye out for children in traffic, McFadden had this reminder:

"It's one of the responsibilities of an automobile driver to look out for kids in traffic. If you're not ready to accept this responsibility, you're not ready to drive a car."

Rotan Yellowhammers Blow Into Town Friday for Battle

Visitors Coming With Two Wins Hanging to Belts

Rotan High School Yellowhammers will invade Hamlin Friday night for the second home game on the Pied Piper menu of the football year. The tilt is scheduled to get underway at 8:00 o'clock on the Piper stadium.

Reeling from the squeeze-by licking administered last Friday night by the Merkel High School Badgers, the cohorts of Truman Nix will be looking again for the win column in which they had been standing after their first two engagements. Coach Nix says his lads are ready for the battle with the perennial foes from Rotan, having suffered only minor shake-ups from the Merkel engagement.

Little change in the starting line-up of the three previous tilts will be made in the Friday encounter.

The Yellowhammers were idle last week-end, they having taken their first two games of the year. Rotan won the first game from the Munday Moguls by a 7 to 6 count, and Olney fell before them in their second tilt by the score of 7 to 0.

Rotan, along with Merkel, was dropped last year from Class AA ranks, but both clubs have fielded top teams this year. The winner of their A loop is expected to be decided between the two teams, do posters aver.

New High School Gym to Be Ready About November 15

Hamlin High School's immense $150,000 gymnasium and band hall is about 75 per cent complete, it was indicated this week by officials of the school.

Contractor on the unit estimates that the gymnasium now will be completed by November 15. Plans are being made to have an open house of the new structure, all people of the area being invited to the opening. Superintendent of School C. F. Cook announces.

Basketball practice will begin about the middle of November, according to Coach Harrell Blackburn, so the completion date of the gymnasium will suit him and his boys fine, he avers.

Mighty Mice of Junior High Beat Albany by 14 to 7

Hamlin Junior High School's Mighty Mice started their football season on the right foot last Tuesday night with a victory over the Albany Juniors, 14 to 7.

Hamlin clearly outplayed their opponents during the first half, but had to settle for a scoreless tie at half time. Albany failed to register a first down during the first half.

Albany received the second half kick-off and, running from a single wing formation, scored after three successive first downs.

Hamlin immediately retaliated with Jodie Ford scoring the touchdown and Wesley Cummings adding the extra point on a line plunge. Hamlin wrapped up the game by scoring again in the fourth quarter. Jodie Ford again carried for the touchdown by scampering 45 yards, and Wesley Cummings plunged for the extra point.

Hamlin's line played an outstanding defensive game. Line-men were Wayne Boatright, Gary Cooper, Bobby Ellison, Robert Rangel, Gary Williams, Henry O'Neal, Shorty Brewer and David Bonds. Backs were Michael Bond, Wesley Cummings, Jodie Ford and Robert Brandon.

Mrs. Don Hymer won the second flight with a 64. Mrs. S. C. Ferguson Jr. was runner-up with a 65.

Mrs. D. W. Cowan and Mrs. George Poe won awards for unusual plays.

Hamlin and Rotan On Top of Heap for Junior High Gridders

After initial games of the football season played by four of the five members of the area Junior High School Conference, Hamlin and Rotan are holding top positions in the standings.

Tabulated standings look like this:

Teams	P.	W.	L.	Pct.
Hamlin	1	1	0	1.000
Rotan	1	1	0	1.000
Albany	1	0	1	.000

District 4-AA Teams Again Capture Three Out of Four Games Last Week

Football teams of District 4-AA seem to be working on a pattern so far this year, having won three of their four games for three weeks in a row.

But the past week it was Hamlin who lost, and Anson who won, where Stamford and Seymour went on the keep unblemished records against non-conference foes.

Anson got into the victory column Friday night by trouncing the Spur Bulldogs by a 19 to 6 count, in a tilt played on the Tiger stadium. Quarterback Terry Cavitt scored first for Anson in the first quarter with a 31-yard run. Attempted pass for extra point failed. Eddie Hagins tied things up in the second frame on a two-yard plunge, but the extra boot point failed. Anson went ahead in the second quarter when Payne Pelton went over. Roberts scored in the final quarter on a one-yard push. Hamlin defeated Spur the previous week by an 18 to 12 score.

Sparked by Larry Walling and Larry Martin, the Seymour Panthers shut out Burk Burnett by a 26 to 0 score. The Panthers tallied in every quarter. Walling accounted for two touchdowns. Martin for another, and Don Pollard traipsed across on a pass from Billy Ryan. Burk Burnett's only serious threat came late as they made it to the Seymour one-yard line at the final whistle.

All-state Halfback Mike McClennan was all over the place on the Andrews griddle Friday night when he scored all four touchdowns for the Stamford Bulldogs as they trimmed the far West Texans 26 to 13. Andrews brought first blood in the first quarter when Darrell Hamilton went over on a 10-yard run. McClennan rushed in to block the extra point try, then took the kick-off and went down the sidelines for 93 yards and the tying marker. Andrews again scored in the final period on a five-yard plunge. Stamford made 19 first downs to 10 for Andrews.

After two wins in a row, the Hamlin Pied Pipers outplayed but lost to the Merkel Badgers in a slam-bang football game Friday night to the tune of 39 to 32. The Mighty Mice downed the Albany Cubs by a 14 to 7 count. Anson was idle.

Games set for September 25 were: Hamlin at Merkel and Rotan at Anson. Albany was idle.

All Junior High School games are set for 7:30 o'clock, according to Marvin Carlton, Hamlin Junior High School principal.

Pipers Outplay and Outgain Merkel Badgers But Lose by 39 to 32 Score

Friday night's football game with the Merkel Badgers was a lollapaloozer, and, although the Pied Pipers outplayed and outgained the visitors, the best they could do was hold the short end of a 39 to 32 score.

The game was played before an opening home game crowd of 2,500, who were on their toes along with the players most of the game.

Four minutes deep in the first quarter Robert McLean, who was the Badger star of the evening, went over for pay on a keeper play for 36 yards. Kermit Rutledge missed the try for extra point.

Three minutes later Hamlin got into the game on a two-yard plunge by Doug Ford after a 37-yard drive. Joe Cowan missed the point try.

McLean again went over for a touchdown one minute deep in the second quarter, and Rutledge again missed the point try.

Five minutes later the Badgers went farther ahead when Jackie Russell went 32 yards for the third Merkel touchdown and Rutledge converted to give Merkel a 19 to 6 margin.

The Pipers came back strong when Don Adair passed to Right End Lane Fletcher, who made 42 yards for a score. Charles Jenkins booted the extra point, and the half ended 19 to 13.

Hamlin again tied things in the third period when John Richey went for 10 yards and the score after Jerry Jay had made 32 yards on a pass. Jenkins missed the try for point and the score was 19 to 19.

The Merkel-Hamlin game played last Friday at Hamlin accounted for $1,188.50. After officials were paid, Hamlin's share was $541.05.

Merkel again went ahead six minutes later when McLean passed to Manley Denton for 10 yards.

Again the count was knotted when Doug Ford went over from the two-yard spot shortly after the fourth frame began to climax a 50-yard march down the field. The score stood at 25 to 25.

A 55-yard drive put the Badgers ahead again when Rutledge carried over from five yards away and then ran across the extra point.

Final score for Merkel came nearly at the closing whistle when McLean added insult to injury as he wound up his scoring for the night as he went over on a 12-yard run and the extra point put the final score at 39 to 32.

Mighty Mice to Play Anson Here Tuesday

Hamlin Junior High's Mighty Mice will meet the Anson Junior team on the Pied Piper stadium next Tuesday evening at 7:00 o'clock.

Anson is rumored to have a strong team featuring very fast backs. The tilt is expected to be a very good game.

Austin.—Conservative and Liberal Democrats are battling each other. Republicans are active. But the Constitution party of Texas now is in the spotlight.

At their Austin meeting the Constitution party grabbed headlines by naming as their nominees prominent Democrats who have been active in recent campaigns. Their choice included W. Lee O'Daniel for governor; J. Evetts Haley for lieutenant governor; Reuben Seutenitt for attorney general; Warren G. Harding for state treasurer; and Ross Carlton for the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Congressional candidates will be chosen later.

Secretary of State Tom Reavley challenged the Constitution party's right to nominate any candidate who had been defeated for the same office in the recent primaries.

Joseph M. Rummier of Houston is state chairman of the Constitution party. Their presidential nominee is Democrat T. Coleman Andrews, former internal revenue commissioner of Richmond, Virginia. Former Republican Congressman Thomas Wardell of California is their vice presidential choice.

Major plank in the party's platform is elimination of federal income taxes.

Possibility of moistening droughty Texas by artificial rain-making may be debated in the next Legislature.

After hearing state and federal weather experts at an Austin meeting, the Texas Water Resources Committee voted to dig deeper into the subject. If findings are favorable, the committee indicated it would recommend legislation and appropriations for a long range state-wide project.

Scientists were cautious in their claims before the committee. Much is yet to be learned about what makes rain, they said, and previous experiments have not yet been thoroughly evaluated. But they agreed prospects were promising enough to merit further research.

Scattered showers have helped, but most Texas farmers still are scanning the skies for a "fall soaker."

U. S. Department of Agriculture's latest crop report reflected increasingly critical conditions. Examples: Cattle, "forced to market;" peanuts, "past redemption;" dry land cotton, "extremely short crop;" vegetable planting, "limited." Only irrigated cotton was reported "thriving heavily."

Delinquencies on veterans' land loans have dropped 19 per cent since 1954, said Land Commissioner Earl Rudder.

Payment failures ran 20 per cent on loans made under his predecessor, Bascom Giles, said Rudder. Under the new administration they have dropped to one per cent.

Some 13,000 requests from veterans for loans now are pending before the land board. Present funds will stretch over only about 1,000. More money will be available if voters approve a constitutional amendment for a new $100,000,000 bond issue at the general election.

Smithville, an old railroad town, lost another round in its prolonged attempts to retain offices of the Missouri-Kansas-Texas Lines.

An Austin district court upheld the Railroad Commission order permitting consolidation of Smithville and Waco offices.

Unique aspect of the case was the "all-star" legal line-up. A former Supreme Court Justice, James P. Hart, represented Smithville. Former Governor Dan Moody represented the railroad.

18-Year-Olds Are Warned About Register Failure

Eighteen-year-olds of the Hamlin area are being warned that law requires they be registered with their draft board at Anson, according to a release to The Herald from the state director at Austin.

Draft board registration over the state is lagging under official expectations, Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state selective service director, said Tuesday.

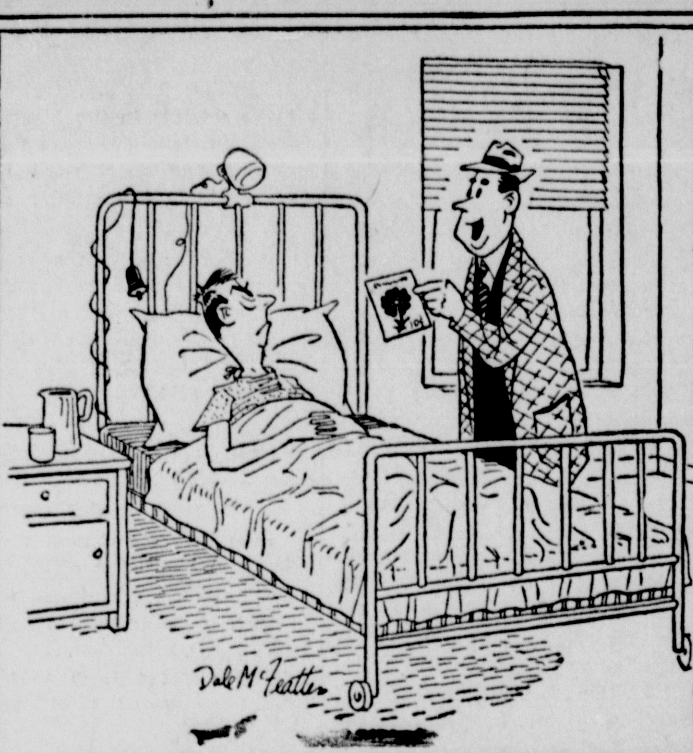

Total registration at local boards through August was nearly 43,000, Colonel Schwartz said. During the same period in 1955 registration was nearly 44,000 which was in excess of registration for a like period in 1954.

"If registration follows the trend of the past several years, it should increase in 1956 over 1955," Colonel Schwartz said. "By this time of the year we had expected registration would be between 1,000 and 2,000 above that of 1955."

He said this expectation was based on increase in the number

Refinished High School Library Now Offers New Convenience and Facilities

Have you seen the new Hamlin High School library? The library has a brand new face, reports Mrs. Zelma Hulse, the librarian.

The room was completely redone last year—from all new blond furniture to the beautiful pastel walls. The venetian blinds were chosen to match the color of the walls to complete the overall effect.

A workroom with a useful, as well as attractive, redwood cabinet and sink and a metal filing cabinet for important files. Next to the workroom is a glass enclosed conference room with a blond round table and chairs. Across the front of this room is a planter with plants that make of live male births each year during the late 1930s and early 1940s and the growth of Texas' population caused by people coming into the state.

Either 18-year-olds are leaving the state, or they are failing to register, Colonel Schwartz said. He said that perhaps some 18-year-old males are delaying to comply with the law.

The draft law requires young men to register with the nearest draft board the day they are 18 or within five days thereafter. Since the present law was enacted in 1948, all males born since August 30, 1932, have had and now have a legal obligation to register, except those not yet 18.

Those who fail to register as required, upon prosecution and conviction, are subject to fine up to $10,000 or five years in prison, or both. No one is drafted under age 22, except volunteers and delinquents, but the law obligates all males to register at 18.

MRS. HOPPER HAS GUESTS.

Odin Hopper, John Hopper and Ray Copeland of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cain of Sweetwater, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hopper and Mrs. Myrtle Copeland spent the week-end with their mother, Mrs. Nora Hopper.

DePriest Colored School Musicians Perform for Lions

Elvis Wamsley and musicians from the DePriest Colored School played and sang all over the oil mill guest house Tuesday noon at the Lions Club luncheon to make a good impression of the type of work being done by the new music director and his students.

Five-piece combo orchestra that played modern numbers had feet of the Lions keeping time from their opening number. The group featured saxophones, trumpet, clarinet, electric guitar and drums. In the unit were Speedy Baldwin, William Hall, James Lowery, Jerardine Mitchell and Director Wamsley.

A girls' quartet, along with those of the orchestra, also was presented in vocal numbers. In the girls' group were Louise Bass, Hattie Killman, Bertie Brown and Juanita Douglas. They sang "Walk Hand in Hand," "Seboney," "Sixteen Tons" and "My Prayer."

Sales Chairman Darris Egger announced good early sales of brooms and mops at the Caravan-for-the-Blind campaign staged under auspices of the Lions Club. Ronnie Brown was installed as a new member of the club by Lion Tamer Truman Nix.

Besides the musicians, other guests at the Tuesday luncheon included John Penn of Dallas, Bob Tulley of Abilene, Frank Legon and Thomas Davis of Hamlin.

Rural Youth Day, the annual get-together of over 100,000 Texas 4-H Club boys and girls, Future Farmers and Future Homemakers, will launch the 1956 State Fair of Texas Saturday, October 6, at Dallas.

The bands of both Texas A. & M. and Texas Tech, whose football teams meet in the Cotton Bowl that night, have been invited to march in the parade.

The rural youth gathering, the largest of its kind in the world, will bring together boys and girls from every section of the state. They will be guests at a gigantic hot-dog picnic on the main parking lot at noon.

THIS IS WHERE TOMORROW STARTS

A new "inner car" gives you a NEW KIND of FORD for 1957! Coming October 3rd

On Wednesday, October 3rd, Ford Dealers throughout the United States will unveil a new kind of automobile!

Cars are involved in every American's life. News of a new kind of car is the biggest kind of news to millions of Americans. The Big New Kind of Ford is that kind of news... a car totally new in design from crest to trunk lock. This completely new automotive package will sell at the traditionally low Ford prices. This makes possible a new high standard of such honest-to-goodness value that it actually increases the purchasing power of your automobile dollar. When you see it, other cars will look out of date, because... This is Where Tomorrow Starts... with a Big New Kind of Ford!

The New Kind of Ford is the fullest, most eloquent expression of Ford's special personality—the youthful grace, the whiplash action—and the reputation for durability known wherever there's a road. To all this we have added true elegance—a kind of elegance never before seen in the low-price field. To make a car truly elegant, you must start deep-down inside.

The New Inner Ford The Inner Ford—the car you cannot see—is a very remarkable structure. Its frame is actually a cradle. Side members extend almost the full body width; they serve not only as supporting members but as concealed side bumpers of immense strength.

The New Ford Body The new Ford body is a triumph of engineering in steel. The doors close with the solid finality of a bank vault. Even the door-lock button has been moved up front—easier for you to reach, but out of the children's reach. All these features were engineered to give you a solid new kind of comfort.

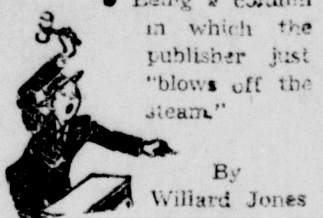

The New Ford Ride Ford offers not only one, but two sizes of cars... each on its own extended wheelbase... each with its own body shell... each with its own styling. First, the two Fairlane Series on a 118-inch wheelbase. The Fairlane 500's come in 5 body types, a four-door sedan, a two-door sedan, a two- and four-door Victoria with no center pillars, and a convertible coupe. The same body types (except for the convertible) are available in the Fairlane Series. Second, two Custom Series mounted on the 116-inch wheelbase chassis. In the Custom 300 Series, a four-door and a two-door sedan are distinguished from the Custom models by more luxurious interiors and elaborate trim. The Custom Series also includes a Business Sedan. Beyond all these, you also have your choice of five Station Wagons—the famous glamour cruisers that are the champions in this field!

The New Ford Look That low, low cradle-span frame means a low, low car. The Fairlane 500 is only four feet eight inches from road to roof! The Custom is just over four feet nine inches! The new Ford is not only low—but long. Ford gives you more than 17 feet of elegant length in the Fairlane Series, a shade less in the Custom. It's a nice kind of fun just to look at it. It's high-priced in every way except price.

The New Ford Performance You can have up to 245 wonderful Thunderbird horsepower in any Ford model. There's a moderate—and really moderate—extra charge for this engine of 312 cubic inches with its 4-barrel carburetor. For "Six" lovers, we've got the 144-hp Mileage Maker Six. Whether you choose Six or V-8, the going is great!

Here is where your own tomorrow starts It starts at your Ford Dealer's showroom! The cars will be there on Wednesday, October 3. These are the best Fords of our lives. They are the first symbols out of Detroit of the new automotive age that is beginning for you. This is where tomorrow starts—at your Ford Dealer's. This is when your tomorrow starts—October 3rd.

Come in and see us for the Big New Kind of Ford! HAMLIN MOTOR COMPANY Sales—FORD—Service

Being a column in which the publisher just "blows off the steam"

By Willard Jones

LESTER BROOKS, district governor of Lions International, who was a special guest at Tuesday evening's ladies' night affair of the local Lions Club, was yarning about the water situation.

"I met a farmer out this way the other afternoon hauling water for his place," declared Brooks. "Where are you hauling the water from?" I inquired. "From the river," the farmer replied. "How far is it to the river?" "Five miles."

"Why don't you drill a well?" "Water's closer at the river!"

THE DISTRICT GOVERNOR also gave a little different version of an old yarn that was still good.

The professional bar fly, Brooks related, went into the bar and bet the bartender that he could blind-fold himself and, by tasting, tell the bartender the correct name of any drink he could mix.

The bartender called the bet, and began mixing drinks and setting them out for the bar-fly to sample.

After the fellow had correctly identified six or eight samples, the bartender poured some water before the guy. He sipped it several times, scratched his head, then declared:

"Well, I give up. I don't know what it is. But it won't sell!"

JO HARGROVE RIDDLE probably will be having her cash washed and greased every time she needs some spending money.

Last week, when she took the Kenneth Riddle car to Hastings Service Station for a cleaning and lubricating job, she didn't realize that it was like going to the bank to cash a check.

As the station attendants began brushing out the car they located some change—then some more. They got a coffee can to put the coins in, and when Jo went after her car it was difficult to convince her that all the change had been picked up under the seats and on the floor-boards of the car.

She took the coffee can home and counted more than $12 in the collection!

Those slanting seats on the new cars are not only comfortable, but they are mighty convenient for dumping change from the riders' pockets, Jo concludes.

"I'm going to buy me a new dress the celebrate," she declared.

MR. AND MRS. Roy Mauldin, who recently moved from Hamlin to make their home in Alaska, in writing for their Herald to be changed to the new address, write: "We are interested in the Home Town Paper, and don't want to miss any news."

The letter, from Mountain View, Alaska, continues: "The weather has been so nice here in Alaska, and there has been more rain than we have seen in Texas for years. It is snowing in the mountains now and will be down to Anchorage any day. So you can see it is cooler and nice here. We are enjoying the change and are feeling fine."

FOUR ANSON GOLFERS were playing a round of golf one afternoon and were proceeding along a hole which paralleled a highway when a funeral procession passed.

One of the foursome removed his hat, bowed his head and stood at attention reverently until the complete procession had passed. After proceeding with his game again, one of his friends asked: "Joe, you must have been well acquainted with the deceased in that funeral, to show such respect."

"Yes," he replied "I was. If she had lived until next Friday, we would have been married 30 years."

ANOTHER bad thing about the terrible car wrecks of this modern day is that a lot of repairs cannot be made on the victims. A so-called poet says:

DEMOCRATIC STRATEGY PLANNERS—Texas state Democratic party leaders met in Austin to plan strategy for the Stevenson-Kefauver campaign in Texas. Above in the session are (left to right): Mrs. Frankie Randolph of Houston national committeewoman; James Blundell of Dallas state executive committee chairman; Byron Skelton of Temple national committeeman; and Mrs. R. Scores More Expected to Be Here for HHS Homecoming

New Addresses Found, and Many Plan to Attend

Plans are progressing for entertaining an increased number of Hamlin High School ex-students this year at the second annual homecoming. The homecoming will be staged on Friday and Saturday, October 12 and 13, according to Cliff Reynolds Jr., president of the HHS Ex-Students Association.

More than 400 attended last year's initial celebration, and scores more exes have been located since then who have indicated they will attend this year.

Reynolds has asked that it be pointed out to the local exes that cards are being mailed only to out-of-town exes, and all local exes are urged to come to the celebration. The local exes should get the word through the newspaper, telephone and word of mouth. The Herald will carry a weekly article on the plans as they are completed.

Area former students are asked to pre-register, using the coupon printed in The Herald.

Committee chairmen in charge of various homecoming events, as appointed by Reynolds, are: Mrs. George Poe, program; Mrs. Bill Shira and Mrs. D. C. Lock, registration; Mrs. Austin Poe, nominating committee; Mrs. Kenneth Riddle, after-game coffee; and Joe Ford, barbecue.

Schedule of activities for the two-day gathering follows: Friday—Registration begins at 3:30 p. m.; football game, Hamlin vs. Colorado City at Piper Stadium, 8:00 p. m. After the game coffee will be served at the high school cafeteria; Saturday—Registration begins at 8:00 a. m. at the high school building; business and class meetings in the auditorium at 9:30 a. m. At 1:00 p. m. a barbecue will be served at the City Park.

Officers of the Ex-Students Association, elected last year to serve with Reynolds, are: Joe Ford, vice president; Mrs. Bill Shira, secretary; Mrs. D. C. Lock, assistant secretary; Mrs. Bill Harbert, treasurer; and Mrs. Brad Rowland Jr., reporter.

Membership Drive for P-TA Unit Underway

A contest is being conducted in the three elementary schools for memberships, and awards will be given the rooms receiving the largest memberships, state P-TA officials.

The word "taxicab" originated from cabriolet, a carriage that "bounces like a goat."

Lions Club's Broom Sales Gross $1,041 In Early Tabulation

Gross receipts for the sales of brooms, mops and other household commodities by members of the Hamlin Lions Club Tuesday were reported by Darris Egger at $1,041 in early tabulations made late Tuesday by Egger, who was chairman of sales for the club. However, the total settled for with the Caravan-for-the-Blind broom truck was $1,076. Probably a little more than this latter total will be established as the final sales figure when all reports are in, Egger declares.

Last year's sales from the blind-made articles totaled nearly $1,200. The local club shares in the proceeds of sales, funds to be used for club projects, according to President Edgar Duncan.

Emergency Roughage Program Is Out of Funds

Volume of approved applications for assistance under the Texas emergency roughage program has exceeded the estimates of demand made when this program was negotiated, so it is necessary to re-appraise the actual cash requirement, advises the Anson office of the Farmers Home Administration.

The agreement between Secretary Ezra Taft Benson and Governor Allan Shivers provides for an allocation of $1,000,000 of federal funds for the roughage program. Funds available to the U. S. Department of Agriculture to finance roughage programs must be allocated among all disaster designated states where such a program is needed.

Walter T. McKay, Texas state director of Farmers Home Administration, has been instructed by K. L. Scott, director of credit services of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, to immediately instruct all FHA county offices in the designated areas to withhold further approvals of roughage purchase certificates.

The county offices are authorized to continue to accept and hold on file applications for assistance under this roughage program, but are instructed to take no action on these applications and to make daily reports on the tonnage requirements covered by such applications to McKay's office.

Bids Called for On Oil Lease of Property at Lake

No immediate plans are being made to hire a replacement for John L. Lea, city coordinator and engineer, who resigned several days ago to accept a position with the Army Engineering Corps at Albuquerque, New Mexico. It was revealed at the regular monthly business meeting of the Hamlin City Council, held Monday night of last week.

This was the first official meeting of the City Council since the resignation of Lea had been presented, effective September 15.

Lea had previously been connected with the Army Engineering Corps at the Roswell Air Force Base before coming to Hamlin eight months ago.

A report of the work done under Lea's supervision was presented to the council. The present city hall was rearranged and city jail cells added under Lea's direction. He also supervised considerable curb and gutter work over the city.

Routine matters were conducted at the business session, including the approval for payment of monthly bills.

The council group voted authorized the advertising for bids on oil, gas and mineral leases on 784 acres of land located at the Hamlin South Lake, six miles south-east of town. A five-year lease is being sought. Bids are to be presented in writing prior to the October meeting of the council on October 16.

Jones County Teachers Meet at Anson Monday in First Session of New Year

"A Challenge to Teachers" will be the subject when Dr. John McFarland, superintendent of schools at Vernon, addresses the Jones County unit of the State Teachers Association in its initial meeting of the year, to be held in the high school auditorium at Anson Monday evening, October 1.

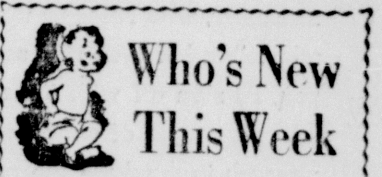

An informal sing-song led by W. E. Mayes of Stamford will precede the address of Dr. McFarland. The meeting will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

The Jones County unit will have two other meetings during the year. In January the host school will be Leuders. At this time the meeting will be held in sectional units, so that teachers may discuss problems that pertain to their individual grades or subjects.

The Stamford teachers will be hosts for the annual spring banquet some time in April.

Officers for the Jones County unit this year are: Mrs. Mary Gay of Stamford, president; W. E. Pistole of Noodle, first vice president; Mrs. Ruth Breed of Anson, second vice president; Rozella Veazey of Stamford, secretary; and Mrs. Maurice Vinson of Leuders, treasurer. In addition to the above, who are members of the executive committee, other members are G. T. Black of Hamlin, Ben Green of Hawley, James Cornell of Avoca and W. Troy Denham of Leuders.

Teachers of all the schools of the county make up the membership of the Jones County unit. One of the projects being sponsored by the Jones County Teachers Association at this time is to acquaint the public with proposed amendment No. 4, which the association hopes will receive favorable consideration of the voters at the November 6 election.

DOES YOUR YOUNGSTER SPEND TOO MUCH?

Ever wonder if your youngster spends more than other children his own age? Today, report the editors of Changing Times, the Kiplinger magazine, children handle more money and take spending money more for granted than ever before.

To see how your youngster compares with the average, here are figures showing what children spend each week and where the money comes from:

Age	Earned	From Parents	Total
6 to 9 years.....	$.80	$.40	$ 1.20
10 to 12 years.....	.70	.60	1.30
13 to 15 years.....	1.60	1.40	3.00
16 to 18 years.....	4.20	3.20	7.40

In the youngest age group, candy, ice cream and sodas account for the largest expenditure. In the 10-to-12 age group, movies become a standard expense. Spending money on hobbies and records becomes a regular item for the boy between 13 and 15, while his female counterpart starts buying cosmetics, minor items of clothing and costume jewelry. Dating is a heavy expense for boys in their late teens (16 to 18), while outlays for beauty and adornment climb in the girls' budgets.

According to the editors, 81 per cent of all youngsters receive formal allowances. Another 16 per cent get informal ones—varying sums at irregular intervals with which to cover their expenses. Only three per cent get no allowance of any kind. Getting a regular sum and making it last is the only practical way, say money-management experts, to teach children to make choices and assume responsibility in financial matters.

About seven out of ten children earn some of their money. Young ones get it chiefly from paid household chores. Older ones baby sit, usher in movie theaters, clerk in five-and-tens on Saturdays. Encouraging youngsters to earn some of their money is good training, but they should do some household tasks without pay.

What Is a Father?

A father is a thing that is forced to endure childbirth without an anesthetic. A father is a thing that growls when he feels good and laughs loud when scared half to death.

A father never feels worthy of the worship in a child's eyes. He's never quite the hero his daughter thinks; never quite the man his son believes him to be—and this worries him sometimes. So he works too hard to try and smooth the rough places in the road for those of his own who will follow him.

A father is a thing that gets very angry when the school grade aren't as good as he thinks they should be. So he scolds his son—though he knows it's the teacher's fault.

Fathers are what give daughters away to other men who aren't nearly good enough—so they can have grandchildren who are smarter than anybody's. Fathers make bets with insurance companies about who'll live the longest. One day they lose—and the bet's paid off to the part of them they leave behind.

I don't know where father goes when he dies. But I've an idea that after a good rest, wherever it is, he won't just sit on a cloud and wait for the girl he's loved and the children she bore; he'll be busy there, too—repairing the stairs, oiling the gates, improving the streets—smoothing the way.

You Rule the Economy

"It isn't the businessman or the government or any other identifiable group which rules our economy," writes Sylvia Porter, the business and financial analyst. "It is 'you,' the consumer, who rules its ups and downs." She adds: "And if that still sounds elementary to you, I'll sign off with the reminder that it has taken a couple of centuries of basic economic research to produce the proof."

This is why more and more studies are being made of consumer hopes, plans and psychology in general. For it is the amount of money you spend, and how you spend it, that determines the economic climate in this vast country.

Ability to Hang On

When Rudyard Kipling was a boy his father took him on a sailing expedition. In the afternoon the father went into his cabin to take a nap. Soon the captain came in and awakened him with the exclamation, "That boy if yours has climbed out on the yard arm, and if he should let go he will fall into the water and be drowned."

The elder Kipling replied, "But that boy of mine will not let go," and promptly went back to sleep.

Kipling's ability to stick and to "hang on" carried him on to many a victory.

More people read the editorial columns regularly than any other department of the newspaper—even including the comics.

That is one of the facts brought out in a reader survey made by The Daily News of Tucson, Arizona. Eighty per cent of men readers said they were editorial page followers, along with 72 per cent of the women. That means the editorial page is a "must" with more than three-quarters of the total readership.

This is an age of great controversy, great problems, great questions. The opinion of the local editor is sought and respected by tens of millions of Americans.

The Old Timer remembers when the only fringe benefits were those a man got from watching the tassel dancer at the county fair.—Changing Times.

Editorial of the Week

PENALIZED FOR DOING GOOD JOB

Some folks say that 90 per cent support prices are to blame for our surpluses. They are overlooking a much more important reason—the revolution in our ability to produce.

It started in the thirties and reached full stride during and after the war. We are growing huge crops of cotton, wheat, corn, rice and peanuts, and have many more cattle and hogs because farm people have learned to produce much more per dollar investment in land, labor and equipment. The upsurge in production is so great that it can't be choked off at any reasonable price level. You might do it with extremely low prices continued long enough to break thousands of good farmers. But that would be a senseless, silly way to solve the problem of agricultural surpluses.

The most significant contribution that 90 per cent supports have made to our heavy production is that they have given farmers the confidence and the dollars needed to follow new, improved practices. Supports at 90 per cent of parity didn't have anything to do with the comparatively high farm prices from 1942 to 1952. They would have been high anyway. But they did permit farmers to buy the chemicals, the equipment and other items of production required to farm efficiently.

A farmer does his best to produce all he can, regardless of price. In fact, if he is being squeezed between low prices and high costs, he has to do his best to stay in business. Now that timber is the only farm crop in short supply, there is little opportunity for farmers to help themselves, price-wise, by shifting from one crop to another.

Some way must be found to reward rather than penalize farmers for doing a good job.—The Farm Journal.

TEXANS IN WASHINGTON

By Tex Easley, AP Washington Correspondent

Washington.—Eleven years ago last April a sleek new battle cruiser, the U. S. S. Galveston, slid down the ways of a ship-building yards in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Clark Thompson, wife of the Galveston district congressman and daughter of the late William Moody, Galveston financier, christened the ship. Her husband then was a Marine Corps colonel.

The colorful launching ceremony is the only noteworthy thing that so far has happened to the vessel. Once afloat, workmen scurried back aboard to finish outfitting her so she could sail out and join in fighting the Japanese. The war ended when she was 90 per cent complete, so work was stopped and she went into the mothball fleet.

But, things are looking up. Admirals testifying recently before congressional committees for money told of an active future they have in store for the USS Galveston. She is to undergo a drastic revamping, to make her useful for modern warfare. Although she had been built with the latest of World War II features, she was becoming obsolete. She is to be converted to a guided missile carrier.

House Speaker Sam Rayburn of Bonham recently participated in ceremonies unveiling a portrait of Representative Joe Cooper of Tennessee in the House ways and means committee room. The Tennessean is committee chairman. The painting was done by Boris Gordon, prominent Houston artist.

The honor of having one's portrait displayed around the capitol and in the congressional committee rooms is a high one. Not all chairmen rate it, but only those who have been held in high esteem by their colleagues. Then, there are pictures or sculptured likenesses of others, such as former speakers and vice presidents. Texas is amply represented

Strike Against Meat Packers Fails to Affect Market Prices at Fort Worth

Trade was fairly active, and most classes of cattle and calves sold fully steady at Fort Worth Monday, declares Ted Gouldy, special market reporter for The Herald, in his weekly release from Cattleman. At Fort Worth a major portion of the cattle supply was again aged cows and bulls. Fed steers topped at $24.

The strike against Swift & Company packing plants across the country affected 39 of that firm's plants. However, since most of their employees at Fort Worth and other Texas points were members of an independent union and not affected by the strike, operations were normal.

All other packers were operating normally, and a check of the Fort Worth area Monday morning revealed practically all plants operating near capacity.

In the critical New York area the U. S. Department of Agriculture reported in the wholesale meat trade that "the strike situation was causing little excitement as wholesalers are functioning on a normal basis. Supplies little changed from a week ago." The USDA report on wholesale meat trade out of Chicago said in part: "Beef offerings not quite as plentiful as most recently."

Comparative prices at Fort Worth: Good and choice steers and yearlings, $17 to $24; common and medium, $10 to $16.50; fat cows, $8.50 to $11; canners and cutters, $5.50 to $8.50; bulls, $8 to $12.50; slaughter calves, $8 to $17.50; baby beef to $18 and above; stocker calves, $19 down; stocker yearlings, $17.50 down.

Butcher hogs opened 50 to 75 cents up at Fort Worth and topped at $17.25 to $17.50, and sows were 50 cents higher at $14 to $15.50. While about normal supply.

plies arrived at Fort Worth, it total around the 12 major markets was about 20,000 under week ago. This factor was credited with the good advance in live hog prices.

Woolled fat lambs topped at $21 at Fort Worth Monday as the trade was steady and fairly active throughout. Shorn lambs with short pelts topped at $19, some that figure bearing No. 3 skins. Longer pelts were quotable higher.

Old ewes were steady, most sales from $4 to $5, a few outside that range. Yearlings sold from $10 to $16. Old wethers drew $3 to $12. Old bucks sold around $3.50 to $4. Cull to medium lamb due $10 to $17. Stocker and feeder lambs sold from $12 to $16, a few higher.

The stocker and feeder sale held at Fort Worth Friday saw a top of $25 per 100 paid for the grand champion pen of steer calves by J. M. Huffington of Hockley. The steers were consigned by J. M. Waide & Son of Sanger. Other choice and good grade steer calves sold from $18 to $21, and plain sorts sold from $15 to $17. Stocker or heifer calves of the better kinds bulked at $16 to $19, with a top of $21 paid for a load from Marfa.

In all some 3,771 calves and yearlings were sold for a gross of $278,556.16. The average straight across was $73.87 per head.

Jimmy Shivers and Ray Johnson Jr. were reviewed on their first class awards in Scouting by Weldon Johnson, Scoutmaster, and Harold Eades, neighborhood Scouting commissioner.

Cooking merit badges were reviewed for Jimmy Shivers, Ray Johnson Jr. and Jerry Smith.

Camping merit badges were reviewed for Jimmy Shivers and Ray Johnson Jr. Ray also passed the review for the basketball merit badge.

All of the above awards will be presented at a future court of honor, time of which was unknown.

The opening ceremony of Monday night's meeting was a color guard composed of John Richey, patrol leader; Bob Martin Jr., assistant Scoutmaster; Bob Johnson and Bill Richey, patrol leaders; and Jimmy Shivers, drummer.

C. F. Cook, superintendent of schools, was presented to the group as guest speaker. Cook told the boys about the importance of keeping good school teachers and how the forthcoming passage of the teacher retirement amendment would help keep and get teachers for our public schools.

The Boy Scouts have volunteered to help in this concentrated effort by placing stickers on cars Friday evening at the football game here.

Scouts will place the stickers on each car bumper Friday night or they will secure permission from each car owner before placing them on windshields, Cook said.

Next, the game period was presided over by John Richey and Bob Martin.

This was followed by patrol meetings, during which officers were elected. These will be named next week.

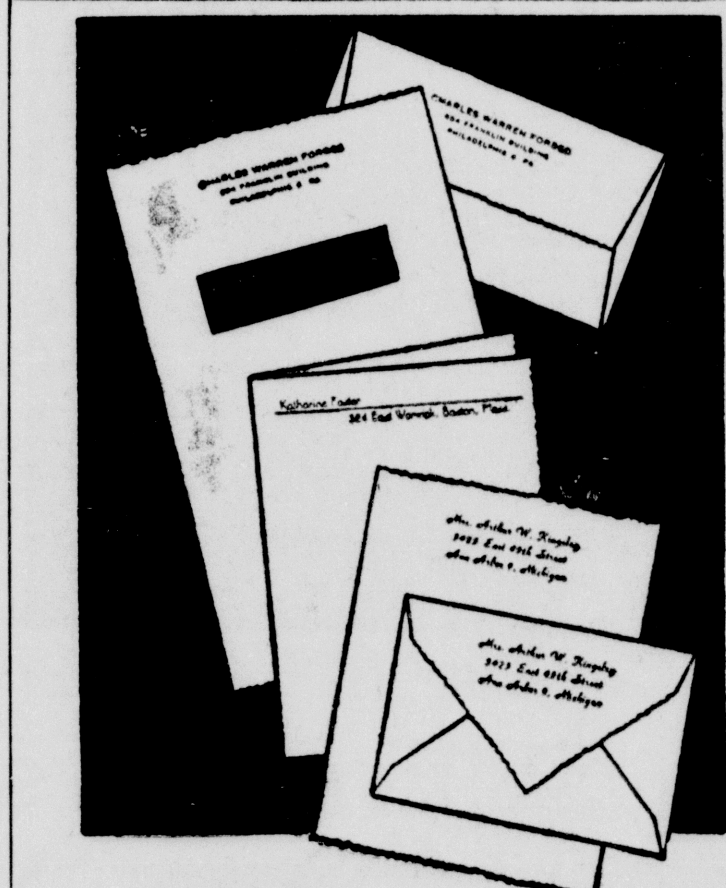

All the Scouts then practiced their Indian ceremonies, preceding the board of review, after which the meeting closed.

Responsibility for Safety of Children Rests Largely on Crown-Up Motorists

"I'd like to give every parent and every automobile driver a chance to sit behind the steering wheel of a school bus for just one day. Believe me, they'd learn plenty about child pedestrian safety."

That observation was made this week by E. C. McFadden, president of the Texas Safety Association. He was discussing the child safety program which is being conducted in Texas by the Texas Safety Association, the Department of Public Safety in cooperation with the National Safety Council.

McFadden is pretty sure that driving a school bus would convince the adults of one thing—that the responsibility for the safety of children in traffic rests largely on the shoulders of the grown-ups.

"Sure, we have problem kids on the bus," he said. "But it's my opinion that the problem of most problem children is their parents."

Bonnie McBride Unit Of Methodist Women Elect New Officers

Mrs. Dean Witt was elected secretary and reporter to fill the vacancy caused by the recent moving of Mrs. John Lee, when members of the Bonnie McBride Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Louis Madden.

The group voted to sell Christmas cards again this year.

Mrs. E. J. Hawkins gave the program on quadrangle goals.

Refreshments were town-house crackers and cold drinks. Present were Mes. Jim Ballard, J. T. Dujka, W. T. Johnson, Richard Young, Brad Rowland Jr., Darris Egger, Parker Kelly, L. C. Bonds, E. J. Hawkins and Dean Witt, members; and three visitors, Mes. Mac Fullerton, W. W. Morgan and D. E. Cowan.

Big Turkey Crop Puts This Fowl on Plentiful Foods List

A record turkey crop is expected this fall—about 10,000,000 head more than a year ago.

Heaviest increases in farm marketings over a year ago are due in September, placing turkeys at the top of the U. S. Department of Agriculture's plentiful foods list for the month.

Rice is another top feature on the list. While this year's crop is estimated to be about 13 per cent less than last, carry-over supplies are still heavy.

With the drought forcing more cattle to market than last fall, beef also makes the September plentiful list. Since most of the cattle are off grass, supplies of intermediate and lower grades of beef will be especially heavy.

Good catches of tuna, coupled with a heavy carry-over from last year, have put canned tuna in on the list.

Too, brawlers and fryers, milk and other dairy products, fresh Bartlett pears, summer vegetables and peanut butter complete the list.

He believes that the youngsters who get out of control on the school bus, or who disregard safety rules when getting on or off the bus, haven't been taught at home to respect others or to respect law and order.

So much for the adults who are an indirect cause of many child pedestrian accidents. He also had plenty to say about the adults who are a direct factor—the automobile drivers.

"Some of them are in such a hurry to get where they're going that they can't spare the time to stop while the school bus is loading or unloading," he said. "There are others who stop, but who don't make sure that all the children are safely across the street before they start up again. Drivers like these risk the lives of children just to save a few seconds time."

For these drivers and for those who don't slow down near schools and playgrounds or who don't keep a constant eye out for children in traffic, McFadden had this reminder:

"It's one of the responsibilities of an automobile driver to look out for kids in traffic. If you're not ready to accept this responsibility, you're not ready to drive a car."

Rotan Yellowhammers Blow Into Town Friday for Battle

Visitors Coming With Two Wins Hangis to Belts

Rotan High School Yellowhammers will invade Hamlin Friday night for the second home game on the Pied Piper menu of the football year. The tilt is scheduled to get underway at 8:00 o'clock on the Piper stadium.

Reeling from the squeeze by Nix administered last Friday night by the Merkel High School Badgers, the cohorts of Truman Nix will be looking again for the win column in which they had been standing after their first two engagements. Coach Nix says his lads are ready for the battle with the perennial foes from Rotan, having suffered only minor shake-ups from the Merkel engagement.

Little change in the starting line-up of the three previous tilts will be made in the Friday encounter.

The Yellowhammers were idle last week-end, they having taken their first two games of the year. Rotan won the first game from the Munday Moguls by a 7 to 6 count, and Olney fell before them in their second tilt by the score of 7 to 0.

Rotan, along with Merkel, was dropped last year from Class AA ranks, but both clubs have fielded top teams this year. The winner of their A loop is expected to be decided between the two teams, dopsters aver.

DISTRICT 4-AA STANDINGS

District 4-AA football teams again won three of their four tilts last week-end, but this time it was Hamlin who lost and Anson who won. After the week-end engagements with non-conference foes, the standings look like this:

Stamford	3	3	0	1.000
Seymour	3	3	0	1.000
Hamlin	3	2	1	.666
Anson	3	1	2	.333

Seymour 20, Burkburnett 0.

New High School Gym to Be Ready About November 15

Hamlin High School's immense $150,000 gymnasium and band hall is about 75 per cent complete, it was indicated this week by officials of the school.

Contractor on the unit estimates that the gymnasium now will be completed by November 15. Plans are being made to have an open house of the new structure, all people of the area being invited to the opening. Superintendent of School C. F. Cook announced.

Basketball practice will begin about the middle of November, according to Coach Harrell Blackburn, so the completion date of the gymnasium will suit him and his boys fine, he avers.

Mighty Mice of Junior High Beat Albany by 14 to 7

Hamlin Junior High School's Mighty Mice started their football season on the right foot last Tuesday night with a victory over the Albany Juniors, 14 to 7.

Hamlin clearly outplayed their opponents during the first half, but had to settle for a scoreless tie at half time. Albany failed to register a first down during the first half.

Albany received the second half kick-off and, running from a single wing formation, scored after three successive first downs.

Hamlin immediately retaliated with Jodie Ford scoring the touchdown and Wesley Cummings adding the extra point on a line plunge. Hamlin wrapped up the game by scoring again in the fourth quarter. Jodie Ford again carried for the touchdown by scampering 45 yards, and Wesley Cummings plunged for the extra point.

Hamlin's line played an outstanding defensive game. Linemen were Wayne Boatright, Gary Cooper, Bobby Ellison, Robert Rangel, Gary Williams, Henry O'Neal, Shorty Brewer and David Bonds. Backs were Michael Bond, Wesley Cummings, Jodie Ford and Robert Bragdon.

Mrs. Don Hymer won the second flight with a 64. Mrs. S. C. Ferguson Jr. was runner-up with a 65.

Mrs. D. W. Cowan and Mrs. George Poe won awards for unusual plays.

Hamlin and Rotan On Top of Heap for Junior High Gridders

After initial games of the football season played by four of the five members of the area Junior High School Conference, Hamlin and Rotan are holding top positions in the standings.

Tabulated standings look like this:

District 4-AA Teams Again Capture Three Out of Four Games Last Week

Football teams of District 4-AA seem to be working on a pattern so far this year, having won three of their four games for three weeks in a row.

But the past week it was Hamlin who lost, and Anson who won, where Stamford and Seymour went on the keep unblemished records against non-conference foes.

Anson got into the victory column Friday night by trouncing the Spur Bulldogs by a 19 to 6 count, in a tilt played on the Tiger stadium. Quarterback Terry Cavitt scored first for Anson in the first quarter for a 31-yard run. Attempted pass for extra point failed. Eddie Hagins tied things up in the second frame on a two-yard plunge, but the extra point failed. Anson went ahead in the second quarter when Payne Pelton went over. Roberts scored in the final quarter on a one-yard push. Hamlin defeated Spur the previous week by an 18 to 12 score.

Sparked by Larry Walling and Larry Martin, the Seymour Panthers shut out Burkburnett by a 26 to 0 score. The Panthers tallied in every quarter. Walling accounted for two touchdowns, Martin for another, and Don Pollard traipsed across on a pass from Billy Ryan. Burkburnett's only serious threat came late as they made it to the Seymour one-yard line at the final whistle.

All-state Halfback Mike McClellan was all over the place on the Andrews griddle Friday night when he scored all four touchdowns for the Stamford Bulldogs as they trimmed the far West Texans 26 to 13. Andrews brought first blood in the first quarter when Darrell Hamilton went over on a 10-yard run. McClellan rushed in to block the extra point try, then took the kick-off and went down the sidelines for 93 yards and the tying marker. Andrews again scored in the final period on a five-yard plunge. Stamford made 19 first downs to 10 for Andrews.

After two wins in a row, the Hamlin Pied Pipers outplayed but lost to the Merkel Badgers in a slam-bang football game Friday night to the tune of 39 to 32. The Mighty Mice downed the Albany Cubs by a 14 to 7 count. Anson was idle.

Games set for September 25 were: Hamlin at Merkel and Rotan at Anson. Albany was idle. All Junior High School games are set for 7:30 o'clock, according to Marvin Carlton, Hamlin Junior High School principal.

Receipts on the Spur game at Spur on September 14 totaled

Pipers Outplay and Outgain Merkel Badgers But Lose by 39 to 32 Score

Friday night's football game with the Merkel Badgers was a lollapaloozer, and, although the Pied Pipers outplayed and outgained the visitors, the best they could do was hold the short end of a 39 to 32 score.

The game was played before an opening home game crowd of 2,500, who were on their toes with the players most of the game.

Four minutes deep in the first quarter Robert McLean, who was the Badger star of the evening, went over for pay on a keener play for 36 yards. Kermit Rutledge missed the try for extra point.

Three minutes later Hamlin got into the game on a two-yard plunge by Doug Ford after a 37-yard drive. Joe Cowan missed the point try.

McLean again went over for a touchdown one minute deep in the second quarter, and Rutledge again missed the point try.

Five minutes later the Badgers went farther ahead when Jackie Russell went 32 yards for the third Merkel touchdown and Rutledge converted to give Merkel a 19 to 6 margin.

The Pipers came back strong when Don Adair passed to Right End Lane Fletcher, who made 42 yards for a score. Charles Jenkins booted the extra point, and the half ended 19 to 13.

Hamlin again tied things in the third period when John Richey went for 10 yards and the score after Jerry Jay had made 32 yards on a pass. Jenkins missed the try for point and the score was 19 to 19.

The Merkel-Hamlin game played last Friday at Hamlin accounted for $1,188.50. After officials were paid, Hamlin's share was $341.05.

Merkel again went ahead six minutes later when McLean passed to Manley Denton for 10 yards.

Again the count was knotted when Doug Ford went over from the two-yard spot shortly after the fourth frame began to climax a 50-yard march down the field. The score stood at 25 to 25.

A 55-yard drive put the Badgers ahead again when Rutledge carried over from five yards away an 8th ran across the extra point.

Final score for Merkel came nearly at the closing whistle when McLean added insult to injury as he wound up his scoring for the night as he went over on a 12-yard run and the extra point put the final score at 39 to 32.

Mighty Mice to Play Anson Here Tuesday

Anson is rumored to have a strong team featuring very fast backs. The tilt is expected to be a very good game.

State Capitol NEWS

Austin.—Conservative and Liberal Democrats are battling each other. Republicans are active. But the Constitution party of Texas now is in the spotlight.

At their Austin meeting the Constitution party grabbed headlines by naming as their nominees prominent Democrats who have been active in recent campaigns. Their choice included W. Lee O'Daniel for governor; J. Evetts Haley for lieutenant governor; Reuben Senterfitt for attorney general; Warren G. Harding for state treasurer; and Ross Carlton for the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Congressional candidates will be chosen later.

Secretary of State Tom Reavley challenged the Constitution party's right to nominate any candidate who had been defeated for the same office in the recent primaries.

Joseph M. Rummier of Houston is state chairman of the Constitution party. Their presidential nominee is Democrat T. Coleman Andrews, former internal revenue commissioner of Richmond, Virginia. Former Republican Congressman Thomas Wardell of California is their vice presidential choice.

Major plank in the party's platform is elimination of federal income taxes.

Possibility of moistening drouthy Texas by artificial rain-making may be debated in the next Legislature.

After hearing state and federal weather experts at an Austin meeting, the Texas Water Resources Committee voted to dig deeper into the subject. If findings are favorable, the committee indicated it would recommend legislation and appropriations for a long range state-wide project.

Scientists were cautious in their claims before the committee. Much is yet to be learned about what makes rain, they said, and previous experiments have not yet been thoroughly evaluated. But they agreed prospects were promising enough to merit further research.

Scattered showers have helped, but most Texas farmers still are scanning the skies for a "fall soaker."

U. S. Department of Agriculture's latest crop report reflected increasingly critical conditions. Examples: Cattle, "forced to market;" peanuts, "past redemption;" dry land cotton, "extremely short crop;" vegetable planting, "limited." Only irrigated cotton was reported "fruiting heavily."

Delinquencies on veterans' land loans have dropped 19 per cent since 1954, said Land Commissioner Earl Rudder.

Payment failures ran 20 per cent on loans made under his predecessor, Bascom Giles, said Rudder. Under the new administration they have dropped to one per cent.

Some 13,000 requests from veterans for loans now are pending before the land board. Present funds will stretch over only about 1,000. More money will be available if voters approve a constitutional amendment for a new $100,000,000 bond issue at the general election.

Smithville, an old railroad town, lost another round in its prolonged attempts to retain offices of the Missouri-Kansas-Texas Lines.

An Austin district court upheld the Railroad Commission order permitting consolidation of Smithville and Waco offices.

Unique aspect of the case was the "all-star" legal line-up. A former Supreme Court justice, James P. Hart, represented Smithville. Former Governor Dan Moody represented the railroad.

Last measure to be activated requires companies to have a minimum of 100 policy-holders and $200,000 insurance in force.

A Texas Insurance Commission spokesman called the requirements "actually very easy to meet" and predicted almost 100 per cent compliance.

Target of the law are companies which, for tax purposes, have operated other type businesses under the guise of insurance firms.

Both Governor Shivers and Commission Chairman Byron Saunders have praised the state's insurance laws in recent statements. Saunders said Texas does not need "any additional reform measures," only "minor changes."

Eight Texas schools have been removed from the accredited list by the State Board of Education. In addition, the board warned 11 other schools they must improve their standards.

Stripped of accreditation were Bexar County School for Boys, Carey (Children County), Douglasville (Cass County), New Hope (Wood County), Houston Christian School, Scranton (Eastland County), Strong (Shelby County), and Sacred Heart (Cooke County).

These schools are ineligible to receive state money for vocational programs and superintendent pay. Their graduates must take entrance exams to enter college or another school.

Texas lawyers have been asked to help persuade the Fifty-Fifth Legislature to allot Travis County's fourth district court.

District Judge J. Harris Gardner pointed out that he and the other two judges face hopelessly jammed dockets.

In addition to local cases, Travis courts get almost all suits brought by and against state agencies.

Short Snorts—William H. Wood of Midland has been appointed by Governor Allan Shivers to the State Board of Pharmacy. Wood succeeds Shine Phillips of Big Spring.

Eight more Texas counties have been designated as drouth disaster areas by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. They are Cass, Delta, Fannin, Gregg, Harrison, Marion, Smith and Upshur. . . . Furniture manufacturing is one of the fastest growing industries in Texas, expanding 10 times as fast as population. University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reported the state's furniture output increased from $23,000,000 in 1939 to $98,000,000 in 1955. . . . Texas will have 1954 new lawyers after next Monday when the Supreme Court will officially license those passing the most recent bar exam. . . . A $16,000,000 increase in Texas farm income for 1957 has been predicted by the Texas Agricultural Stabilization Conservation Committee.

This unofficial estimate was based on the belief that large numbers of farmers will take advantage of the new federal soil bank law.

Improvements Made By Sunset Baptists

Recent completion of a nursery at the Sunset Baptist Church, is announced by the pastor, Rev. R. B. Tiner. This innovation will permit mothers to see as well as hear the service, he declares.

Rev. Tiner says the church has been in a building program all summer, doing general remodeling on the church edifice and arranging Sunday School rooms.

Jones County Club Boys Win Honors At West Texas Fair

Mark Holloway of the Anson Junior Leaders Club exhibited his Jersey heifer to a first place in the junior division and second place in the open class. With his Jersey cow he placed sixth in the open show.

Derrel Black of the Anson Junior Club placed second in his class with his Duroc gilt.

In the sheep show, Delbert Wilson placed fourth with his Rambouillet ram lamb.

The Sears Foundation swine show was held as a part of the fair this year, and the animals were judged Saturday.

John Mitchell of the Anson Junior Leaders Club won grand champion with his gilt, winning over top gilts from Haskell, Taylor and Callahan Counties. In the district boar show, Clifford Mitchell won reserve champion after being nosed out by Haskell County.

In the county gilt show John Mitchell won first, Jim Womack of Hawley won second, Kenneth Vinson of Hawley was third, Douglas Beauchamp of Anson was fourth, and Gilbert Mayfield of Anson won fifth.

John C. Harvey, 78, Dies at Big Spring Last Thursday

18-Year-Olds Are Warned About Register Failure

Eighteen-year-olds of the Hamlin area are being warned that law requires they be registered with their draft board at Anson, according to a release to The Herald from the state director at Austin.

Draft board registration over the state is lagging under official expectations, Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state selective service director, said Tuesday.

Total registration at local boards through August was nearly 43,000, Colonel Schwartz said. During the same period in 1955 registration was nearly 44,000 which was in excess of registration for a like period in 1954.

"If registration follows the trend of the past several years, it should increase in 1956 over 1955," Colonel Schwartz said. "By this time of the year we had expected registration would be between 1,000 and 2,000 above that of 1955."

He said this expectation was based on increase in the number

Refinished High School Library Now Offers New Convenience and Facilities

Have you seen the new Hamlin High School library? The library has a brand new face, reports Mrs. Zelma Hulse, the librarian.

The room was completely redone last year—from all new blond furniture to the beautiful pastel walls. The venetian blinds were chosen to match the color of the walls to complete the overall effect.

A workroom with a useful, as well as attractive, redwood cabinet and sink and a metal filing cabinet for important files. Next to the workroom is a glass enclosed conference room with a blond round table and chairs. Across the front of this room is a planter with plants that make a spot of beauty for all who use the library.

Over 300 new books have been purchased recently, and all books have been completely cataloged for the first time. Gloss enclosed bulletin board at the back of the room always has new ideas for reading in it.

An air conditioner makes it easier and more pleasant to study and work in the library.

There is always a librarian on duty at each period of the day. Last year a Library Club was organized, with library helpers as members. The official name of the club is the Book Keepers Club. Officers elected for the ensuing year are: Ginger Means, president; Gene Steele, vice president; Ruby Campbell, secretary; Everett Gibson, reporter; Elizabeth Norton, historian; Joyce Hines, song leader; Ginger Rabjohn, pianist.

Regular librarian in charge of the library and sponsor of the club is Mrs. Zelma Hulse. There are 19 members of the club at present.

"The public is invited to visit the school and see all of the improvements that have been made in our library," declares Mrs. Hulse.

DePriest Colored School Musicians Perform for Lions

Elvis Wamsley and musicians from the DePriest Colored School played and sang all over the oil mill guest house Tuesday noon at the Lions Club luncheon to make a good impression of the type of work being done by the new music director and his students.

THIS IS WHERE TOMORROW STARTS

A new "inner car" gives you a NEW KIND of FORD for 1957!

Coming October 3rd.

On Wednesday, October 3rd, Ford Dealers throughout the United States will unveil a new kind of automobile!

Cars are involved in every American's life. News of a new kind of car is the biggest kind of news to millions of Americans.

The Big New Kind of Ford is that kind of news... a car totally new in design from crest to trunk lock.

This completely new automotive package will sell at the traditionally low Ford prices.

This makes possible a new high standard of such honest-to-goodness value that it actually increases the purchasing power of your automobile dollar.

When you see it, other cars will look out of date, because...

This is Where Tomorrow Starts... with a Big New Kind of Ford!

The New Kind of Ford is the fullest, most eloquent expression of Ford's special personality—the youthful grace, the whiplash action—and the reputation for durability known wherever there's a road.

To all this we have added true elegance—a kind of elegance never before seen in the low-price field. To make a car truly elegant, you must start deep-down inside.

—six elbows wide in each seat, with deep space around each one of six knees. And above all that space, there's hat room to spare for all six passengers.

The 1957 Ford rides low, solid, with a firm, deep road-holding feel. Yet it's a light-hearted, flight-hearted ride—this car is responsive, nimble, agile, with a proud easy movement.

The New Inner Ford

The Inner Ford—the car you cannot see—is a very remarkable structure. Its frame is actually a cradle. Side members extend almost the full body width; they serve not only as supporting members but as concealed side bumpers of immense strength.

The New Ford Body

The new Ford body is a triumph of engineering in steel. The doors close with the solid finality of a bank vault. Even the door lock button has been moved up front—easier for you to reach, but out of the children's reach.

All these features were engineered to give you a solid new kind of comfort.

The New Ford Ride

The New Kind of Ford sits six people as no other low-priced car has ever sat them

The New Ford Choice

Ford offers not only one, but two sizes of cars... each on its own extended wheelbase... each with its own body shell... each with its own styling.

First, the two Fairlane Series on a 118-inch wheelbase. The Fairlane 500's come in 5 body types, a four-door sedan, a two-door sedan, a two- and four-door Victoria with no center pillars, and a convertible coupe. The same body types (except for the convertible) are available in the Fairlane Series.

Second, two Custom Series mounted on the 116-inch wheelbase chassis. In the Custom 300 Series, a four-door and a two-door sedan are distinguished from the Custom models by more luxurious interiors and elaborate trim. The Custom Series also includes a Business Sedan.

Beyond all these, you also have your choice of five Station Wagons—the famous glamour cruisers that are the champions in this field!

The New Ford Look

That low, low cradle-span frame means a low, low car. The Fairlane 500 is only four feet eight inches from road to roof! The Custom is just over four feet nine inches!

The new Ford is not only low—but long. Ford gives you more than 17 feet of elegant length in the Fairlane Series, a shade less in the Custom. It's a nice kind of fun just to look at it. It's high-priced in every way except price.

The New Ford Performance

You can have up to 245 wonderful Thunderbird horsepower in any Ford model. There's a moderate—and really moderate—extra charge for this engine of 312 cubic inches with its 4-barrel carburetor.

For "Six" lovers, we've got the 144-hp Mileage Maker Six. Whether you choose Six or V-8, the going is great!
